14 v.
15 CAROLYN COLVIN,
16 Defendant.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
SAN JOSE DIVISION

Case No. 5:13-cv-04844 HRL

ORDER DIRECTING PLAINTIFF TO SHOW CAUSE WHY THIS ACTION
SHOULD NOT BE DISMISSED

17 Following reassignment of this matter to the undersigned upon consent of all parties, and 18 for the better part of 2014, briefing deadlines were extended a number of times (mostly at the 19 parties' joint request) to allow plaintiff time to find a new attorney. Plaintiff and her former 20 counsel, Harvey Sackett, eventually stipulated that plaintiff would proceed pro se, in the place and 21 stead of Mr. Sackett. (Dkt. 22). In its order approving that stipulation, this court advised plaintiff
22 of her duty to keep the court informed of her current contact information, and noted that papers
23 would continue to be served on Mr. Sackett, solely for forwarding purposes. (Dkt. 24).
24 Additionally, the then-current briefing deadlines having lapsed by that time, the court directed the 25 parties to submit a joint proposal for new filing deadlines---or, failing submission of a joint
26 proposal, the court said it would set new deadlines on its own without the parties' input. (Id.).
27
28 The court received no proposal from the parties. So, on October 29, 2014, it issued an order re-setting briefing deadlines as follows: Plaintiff's summary judgment motion was to be

United States District Court
Northern District of California

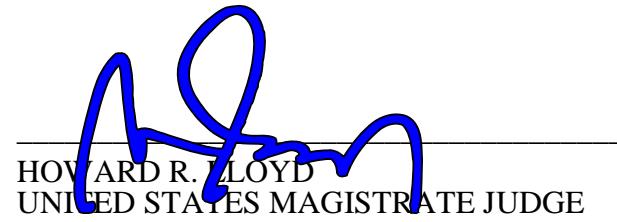

1 filed no later than November 28, 2014. Defendant's cross-motion was due by December 29, 2014.
2 And, plaintiff's reply was to be filed no later than January 15, 2015. (Dkt. 26). This matter
3 having been unduly delayed because of issues with plaintiff's representation, and deadlines having
4 already been extended several times, the court stated that it was disinclined to grant any further
5 extensions of briefing deadlines. (Id.). A copy of that order was electronically served on Mr.
6 Sackett (solely for forwarding purposes). The court also sent a copy of that order by U.S. Mail to 7 plaintiff at her identified address, and that mail was not returned as undeliverable.

8 Plaintiff never did file her summary judgment motion. Hence, no cross-motion or reply
9 was filed either.

10 Accordingly, no later than April 24, 2015, plaintiff shall file a written response to this
11 order, explaining why this case should not be dismissed for her failure to comply with the court's
12 orders and for her failure to prosecute this case and her inattention to it. If plaintiff fails to submit
13 a response as ordered by April 24, this matter will be dismissed without further briefing or 14 hearing.
